“ Dear Tina, Ann and Jim:

What a wonderful man, husband and father your Jim was. I remember his quiet demeanor and the dignified presence of his gentle personality. He was always so nice to us and would do his best to help whenever he was needed. He is at rest now and is at peace with Our Lord.

“ Uncle Jim,

It saddens me a great deal when I think that I can never get advice from you anymore. You have so much knowledge that can no longer be used here on Earth. I always appreciated your honesty and trustworthiness.

On the other hand, I am glad that you don't have to suffer any more pain and confusion. May peace be with you in heaven.

Love,

“ Grandpa,

Words cannot express how deeply saddened I am that you are gone. I would give anything to hear just one more of your stories, to see that amazing smile and to hear you laugh just one more time. You truly were one of the most amazing men I have ever had the honor of not only knowing but loving and having a part of this family. The care you have shown us always will be something I will always keep close to my heart. Your love for Grandma models what true love really is and what every marriage should strive for. There will not be a day that goes by that I won't miss you.

May you always Rest In Peace. I love you!

*Love,
Jennifer*

“ Grandpa, words cannot express how thankful I am for your forever love, support, and for being the best Grandpa and role model to me. I am so blessed to have had 30 beautiful years as your Granddaughter. Your stories from the Navy, your devoted and unconditional love to Grandma and to our family, and your support always with me furthering my education, is something I will always carry with me. You were probably the most quick-witted man I have ever met and your truths and thoughts about life got everyone always thinking.

Thank you for being such a pillar of strength for our family and for being so okay with me always stealing your perfectly chilled peaches:)

I love you always,

Your baby granddaughter,
