“ May the Angels be his guide, may they lead him into paradise and take him home to the new Jerusalem...I so enjoyed Jim and Sharon while they were parishioners here at St. Simon in Ludington. I especially loved when he would come back after one of his adventures with his sister and tell me all about what he did and saw. What a kind and gracious man I had the privilege to know. May all the wonderful memories be a comfort to you his family and all that knew him. Blessings, Amy McGraw

“ Many fond memories of Jim..from being officers in the Birchgrove homeowners association, boating trips to Port Huron with him and Shari and our many unforgettable flights into the northern Ontario bush for fantastic walleye fishing. Jim was one of the kindest and helpful person I ever known. We lost contact with each other in the later years, but I never will forget those great times boating and our weeks spent with him and our 2 other best buddy's fishing northern Ontario. REST IN PEACE MY FREIND Jim Scarpance
