“ So sorry for the loss of James. A hard working, full of life, great guy. Loved his witty sense of humor, really enjoyed his FB posts! He was always enjoyable to be around especially at a party or gathering. At gatherings he was known for sometimes leaving early but commonly without notice or saying goodbye. He was teased about this, we called it "doing the duck!" James you did "the duck" far far to early! Rest In Peace, you are greatly missed!

“ Living next door to Jim was a blessing. Anytime I needed a hand he was always there. He would never, ever take payment for his time. I would have to insist he take a case of his favorite, Bucsh Light as payment. Just a couple of weeks ago he wanted to help me unload a new toolbox I bought. I knew his back was bothering him terribly, but he wanted to help. That was Jim. Thank you for everything. The Smith clan will always remember you.
