“ Dear Aunt Ilene,

My father called with the sad news yesterday. Lisa and I are very sorry we couldn't make it there to express our sorrows, but our prayers are with you.

Uncle Jim was a very special uncle and godfather. I am thankful for the time I spent with him when he came to Maryland with my father.

We went to the American History Museum where they had old boilers and steam engines on display. He shared personal stories and histories of many of the displays, some of which he or his father had operated. Through his stories I saw my grandfather as a young man for the first time.

One of my favorite stories was about his young beautiful wife who could bank a fire better than any other woman he knew.

Again, we are sorry we could not be there now but this summer we will certainly see you.

*God Bless,
David, Lisa, Nick, Megan and Aidan###imported-begin###David

“ Hi Aunt Ilene,
What a bummer. Julie, Katie and I arrived home at the same time last night and all heard the message on the answering machine from my father telling of Uncle Jim. Katie has never seen me cry before last night, and I want you to know that Jim truly was my favorite uncle. We'll see you at the funeral home. Your nephew,
