“ Jim, my best friend, im wondering who am i to text everyday? Im wondering what do my children do this summer when we have water ballons and pool parties? Who do we pull pranks on and put things under car seats? Who do we just laugh and joke with anymore? Who does Greg have to keep him company at the shop? Who do we cook for and visit with? Who can we push in the pool this summer? I miss you my dear friend, I love you, love Greg kelly and kids.

“ Dear family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one James Richard Theodore. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes many different emotions which are somewhat unpredictable. The Scriptures contain some practical advice. There is a time to weep according to Ecclesiastes 3: 1, 4. So don't hold back the tears. Remember, they are a natural and necessary part of grieving and even God's Son Jesus Christ wept. The Bible gives us the best comfort during times of grief. (Luke 23:43; John 5:28, 29).

“ First Id like to say our prayers and thoughts are with Jimmy's family. Jimmy was a wonderful person and will be missed by so many, he always had a smile for everyone and brought a brightness to the Detroit Golf Club. He always talked about his love of movies and music and how he loved to go to concerts. We feel blessed to have been able to have lunch with him on Friday. Our hearts are broken and it will not be the same at the Detroit Golf Club with him gone. Your Laundry ladies will miss you coming into the laundry dragging that bag of napkins with a big smile on your face.

God Bless you and your family.
