“ Dear Rose Marie,
It was with much sorrow I read of the death of your much loved husband Jim. When he & his family moved from Philadelphia to Indian Village , I believe I was his first close friend. We did all of the things together that young men do at that time of their lives. I might add we had a lot of fun. Although the years & miles separated us, he has often entered my mind. I might add it always brought a smile to my face. Knowing he is now gone will leave a void in my life. Please say hello with fondest wishes to all of the Carrs. I offer my sincere sympathy to all.

“ Jim, I know you have left us because your smile is gone. I hope you took it with you so you can use it as you reunite with Mom, Dad, and Mare in Heaven.

You are a terrific brother. Thank you for the many years of love, support, and helpfulness you have given me throughout my life.

You are truly missed. My faith tells me that you are now completely happy and free from all physical pain. Therefore, I must unselfishly let you go unto your eternal reward.

I will keep you in my heart until we meet once again.

Love,
