“ Jim and I were very close friends at St. Raymonds, and at DeLaSalle. We spent many days together. Riding our bikes to Lipke Pool where he showed me up with his strong swimming ability. We were both in scouts and went on camp outs together. Some by way of an old red bus that my father, Gee Stefani, bought for scout troop 66 and Jim's dad rebuilt and kept running. After I went away to college Jim and I drifted apart but the fond memories of our friendship have stayed with me. He was a very warm, friendly and considerate person. I regret that we did not resume our friendship later in life, I but I had my own family and you know how that goes. I truly feel fortunate for the times we spent together. Unfortunately, I am a little under the weather and will not be able to pay my respects in person but Jim and his family will be in my thoughts and prayers. “ To the Family of Jimmy Weiss: I had known Jim for over 20 years as an outstanding member of Alcoholics Anonymous. He was a gentle, humble, caring man who always thought of the newcomer coming into the doors of AA, and effortlessly gave of his time, his experiences, strengths and hopes. I saw him on New Years Eve with his charming sister at an AA party and he was full of brightness and hope for the coming year. I am SO sorry for your loss but I know Jim's in Heaven right now and brightening everyone's day. Love, and Much Sympathy,
