“ Dear Sharon,
I saw the notice of Jim's death in the paper Sunday. Was sorry to hear about it. How are you doing? Did you ever move to that senior citizens home? I would have called but do not have your phone number or address anymore. I retired from Real Estate as of Dec. 31. I just didn't not enjoy it anymore and I thought it was time after being in the business 30 years. I know you don't have a computer so maybe one of your sons can pass it on to you.
Please accept my sincere sympathy.

“ To all of Uncle Jim's immediate family,

We send you our deepest condolences on his passing. He was a great inspiration to me in my formative years and I will always cherish the time spent with him laughing, fishing, debating and occasionally being serious.

It's a shame that we have grown so far apart and I pray the lord provides the thread that can mend that fabric of our soles.

“ Aunt Sharon, Steven, Jonathan and family - our thoughts and prayers are with you. Jim could always make his point quickly and sharply which was so refreshing in a PC world. We spoke sometimes by e-mail in the later years and he was kind and lovig to me. Once while standing in front of the icons at the Greek Church he told me he believed in the Lord. I will never forget the moment. So, our family's hope is for eternal life and peace for Uncle Jim. God Bless you and Keep You with Love from our family, Chris, Alicia, Sara and Torey##imported-begin##Chris Gostek##imported-end##
