“ Dear McNally Family, My sincere condolences. I worked with Jim at the MESC on budgets. I could always count on him to do his part, always with a great sense of loyalty to his department and their mission. And frequently his tongue-in-cheek humor would be evident, which made difficult days go by with a smile. Bless you all.##imported-begin##Henrietta (Hank) Morin##imported-end##

“ Dear Madge and Family:

I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Jim was one of the last people to visit Joe in his last days. I can't believe that now Jim is also gone. Madge, if you ever need to talk - email me.##imported-begin##Connie Lagodzinski##imported-end##

“ Our deepest sympathy to Jim's family. We used to live on Cunningham (across from the Jacobs family). Our daughter, Katie, loved to play with the dogs when Jim would walk one of them down the street. We will miss seeing him at the St. Clement Dad's Club Vegas Night.##imported-begin##Brian & Terri Kozlowski and Family##imported-end##
