“ Dear Jennine,
I'm am so sorry to hear of your husbands passing. I was trying to find you on facebook and found out by accident. I Know it's been 2 years, but I still had to send my condolences. I remember seeing you at the garage sale in Casville and you saying something about Jim having a heart attack. I'm so sorry. I hope you and your boys are doing ok. I can't even imagine going through that especially at such a young age. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I want to send my heart and condolences out to the Meyer family in this very trying time. Jim was a truly wonderful guy with lots of love and laughter in life. He will be missed by all.

Here is a sonnet I found reminiscent of Jim:

*Death is nothing at all,
I have only slipped into the next room
I am I and you are you
Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.
Call me by my old familiar name,
Speak to me in the easy way which you always used
Put no difference in your tone,
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was,
Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same as it ever was, there is unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near,
Just around the corner.
All is well.*

“ Jim was a much loved man, evidenced by the phenomenal devotion of his precious wife, Jennine, and his sons: Andrew and Michael. Although I only knew him through Jennine, it was evident that he was a great husband and wonderful father: thoughtful, loyal and above all, loving. The world is a better place because of Jim and I am a better person for having met the family that he helped bring into our world. ##imported-begin## Sr. Ronnie ##imported-end##

“ We are so sorry to hear of your loss... Jim was a GREAT man and co-worker... I worked with Jim at Mound Road Engine and Mack Avenue, even though it was work it was a lot more fun when Jim was around... then to my surprise our boys played football together, I told my wife "this is going to be a lot of fun, that's my boss and he is a riot." Mrs. Meyers and the boys: remember all the good times, I know you all have many. ##imported-begin## Steve and Tracey Fulks ##imported-end##

“ There isn't one memory from my childhood summers that doesn't include Jim, or as my dad called him "Kid", behind the wheel of his boat, pulling one of us on a tube, or taking us to the next hot fishing spot. I have had the privilege to enjoy years of Jim's company with my family and his, and he will truly be missed.

Jennine, Andy, and Mikey you are in my prayers. I hope that you stay strong during these tough times knowing that your father and husband left all of us with many great memories. ##imported-begin## Kyle Kapa ##imported-end##

“ Jennine, Andy & Michael,

*I am overwhelmed with tears right now as I write this message, knowing that at this moment you are beginning your farewell to a wonderful husband and father. No words can express how deeply devastated and heartsick Michael & I feel about Jim's death. I remember last month telling you both that there are some friends that you don't have to talk to or see often, but know that you can always pick up wherever you left off. Jim & Jennine, you have ALWAYS been those kind of friends to me. Despite the distance between us, you've always been in my heart, thoughts and especially my prayers after Jim first start his "heart journey". I felt I had a kinship with him...swapping war stories about our imperfect hearts. Jim's heart my not have been strong enough to let him live in this world, but his love, kindness, joy and laughter will forever live on. Not many could light up a room with so much fun...he did! Jennine, my dear friend, I love you and will keep you and the boys in my prayers. Thank you for introducing your wonderful guy to all of us. God Bless You Jim!!!

“ Dear Jennine, Andy and Mike,
Our hearts go out to you during this time of such great loss. We can't imagine not having our friend "Meyers" running around. Mary Kay had the pleasure of meeting Jim for the first time when she started dating me in 1978. She always thought Jim was a riot and a truly great fiend to me. I've known my best friend since I was six years old. He accomodated me with a simple yes answer when I asked him if we could be friends. It meant a lot to a new kid on the block. And then the years of constantly playing pick up games at Defer field. Learning new swear words from his older brothers Bob and Tom and listening to crazy Joe Colosimos stories. Life growing up with my buddy Jim was one I'll always treasure. He and I lived together as roomies for several years and had great times. Once when we played Jennine and Mary Kay in scrabble (Guys against the Girls) We cheated and used turned over scrabble tiles as blanks, the girls nearly killed us when they caught on. So many memories, too many to mention. We will always hold our friend dear to our hearts. And until we see you again big fella, may God hold you in the palm of his hand. Love, Guido.###imported-begin##Guy and Mary Kay Dinverno###imported-end##

“ It's hard to put into words how much Jim(Kid) & Jennine mean to us. We have been so "blessed" to have them as friends. Our families have not only grown up together but have grown together. We will warmly cherish so many memories of friendship, laughter, (especially laughter,sheehaaa) and love. Jim will always be a special part of our lives and will live in our hearts forever. Most importantly we will always be there for you and the boys Nean. May God Bless you and keep you in the palm of his hands. “ Jim was truly a good husband, father, neighbor and friend. He touched every-one's heart with his charming personality, always laughing and just knowing how to be the life of a party. He impacted our lives with his strong desire to survive for his loving wife Jennine, and his son's Andy and Michael for the last 16 years and has encouraged us that we should never give up. Dearest Jennine, Andy and Michael, I believe Jim will continue to watch over all of you from heaven. Our prayers are with you daily. “ We have all lost "one of the best" with Jim. His kindness, laughter and generosity will never be forgotten, especially to us in the "Kapa Family". Jennine and Jim have always been wonderful friends to everyone who has touched their lives. The guys will truly miss him on the golf course where his antics kept them all laughing. We will forever remember you Jim and miss you always and feel so fortunate to have known your great family. May God Bless Jennine and your sons in their sorrow. “ Jim, is the best Brother-In-Law a guy could ever have. A Guy's, "Guy". Jim has left a tremendous display of how to be so helpful, and kind to all. A fashion trend setter. Jim was one of the originals to wear "Boat Shoes" (Sperry Topsiders) for casual wear. Thank You Jim for being so loving to my Sister, and a wonderful Father to Andy and Mike. You will live forever in our hearts. Cheers!!###imported-begin###Greg Pukay###imported-end##
