“ *Dear Stan, Marilyn, and Robert: We just heard the sad news of Jane's passing. If a life can be measured by friendships alone, Jane lived an extraordinary life. We will always remember her many kindnesses and gentle demeanor. And she wrote the loveliest and most informative notes. We are so sorry at her passing but so grateful for having had her in our lives. We extend our deepest sympathy to you all for your enormous loss.##imported-begin##Leo

“ We are so sorry. Jane was a wonderful, thoughtful person. I had some nice conversations with her in only a month ago, when Mom Schlegelmann passed away. Jane told me how she was mom's godmother. Little did we know that she would be joining mom so soon.

*Your family is in our prayers. God Bless.##imported-begin##Mike &

“ Dear Florek family, I am so sorry for the loss of you dear loved one, Jane. At times like these, we need the loving support of family and close friends, but far surpassing this is comfort from God. Revelation 21:3,4 says: "He will wipe our every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

Such promises from the Almighty are sure to come true. His own word promises that he cannot lie (Titus 1:2)

I hope that in some small way these few verses will bring solace at this difficult time.
