“ My condolences go out to our family at this time of great sorrow and loss. May God comfort you as we move on the way grandma would like us to and to continue to be strong in our own journeys. We will never forget her.

Grandma, you are now at home with our heavenly father and one day we will be together again. Your strong spirit will remain within me. You have taught me so much and I will never forget how you have always not only been my grandmother, but my best friend and like a mother to me. You have always stayed positive . I was always glad to have someone to talk to about church, Now I can talk to you in heaven about it and know you have found the greatest peace there is.. Your strength will always be the fight in my life to stay strong. We all get our strength from you. My mom had a lot of strength but i will never know how the two of you found the strength you had, except by the power of Faith. The love compassion and encouragement you shared will always be a part of me, most of all a comfort everyday for the rest of my life. I will say my rosary with you tomorrow at mass and I will know your spirit is forever near.. My rosary will always be in remembrance of you and how much we shared the love of the church. Please rest in peace. I know your love for the family was immeasurable, and you had a lot of fight in you, but now you can find comfort in the Lord...Peace and love be with you. You will never be forgotten
