“ I second everything that Janet’s sister Freda said about her. She was an elegant, humble woman with a great sense of humor. She always had a kind word to speak. Janet had a flair for dressing which may have come from her dress designer/Seamstress Mother. Her trust in God was always evident as she journeyed through difficult situations in her life. I was with her last year for a short visit and enjoyed every single moment of that time. She made me laugh, noticed and commented on what I was wearing , and brought joy to the whole room. I really didn’t want to leave. I’m grateful to have that memory.

“ My Special Sister ... Janet

We were the two youngest of five sisters and we did many things together. School, housework, yardwork, dating, she came to my Prom and married my husband's friend from school, who attended the Prom with another girl!

Prior to marriage she graduated from Patricia Stevens Modeling School and modeled those wonderful big hats for JL Hudson's. Later she worked at Champion Spark Plugs, and gave money to help others, late 1940's. Married, two sons, widowed at 34 ... what now?

We had our children at the same time, same Doctor, same hospital, I would be coming home after delivery, and she would be coming in to deliver. We did so many things together.

She worked at two Nursing Homes with her sisters as a PR lady and helped with therapy activities. She was a wiz, quiet and had patience with everyone.

Again, she had a different mission, she was going to work for "GOD". She joined Bethesda Church, felt welcome, loved it. She was there when they put the big Cross on the roof with a helicopter, on Metropolitan Pkwy and Schoenherr. All the staff was on the front lawn and of course her sisters were there too. She attended there until she broke her leg, and she really missed attending. Her mission at Bethesda ended, so she began working at a handicap school in Warren.

She is now in her late 70's and she is outside in heat and snow playing and supervising handicapped children. I questioned it, she said she was working for "GOD". She had no grandchildren, so "GOD" sent her there.

Janet was unique, quiet at times, some may say meek, but she had

“GRACE” to accept whatever came. She had tremendous FAITH and TRUST. “GOD” said, “TRUST HIM” and she did. No questions, no debate, “HE” said it, and she accepted it.

Never jealous, no self-pity, humble, happy for everyone. She had her famous words, “GOD” said, “What will be yours, will be yours.” That is her Legacy to me.

TOTAL ACCEPTANCE....TOTAL TRUST.

When her husband died, she said “GOD” told her your sons will take care of you. That has come to full circle ... WAYNE and NORM have been an inspiration; they certainly have followed “Honor Thy Father and Mother.

WHAT A LEGACY.

“ My sincerest condolences.

I have many fond memories while growing up. The many family visits with the Colborne family, including Uncle Norms wonderful dog, Blacky. The seemingly weekly parties and Holiday get togethers. Enjoying Hawaii with Aunt Janet and my mom in 1984 to celebrate my college graduation.

You are and have always been in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My deepest condolences and heart go out to the family and all who knew her during this difficult time. May you find comfort in the cherished memories and the love that surrounds you. I have not seen Aunt Janet in a long time (39+ years), but Mom always talked highly of her and said Aunt Janet raised her because her mother died at Mom's age 3. From my experience with Mom, Aunt Janet did an exemplary job!
