“ Grandma,
As I currently watch the sunrise, I can feel your soul at peace. I wish I could drink one more Miller Lite with you and listen to your stories of the past. Some of which included your days working at the original Hudson building in Detroit and how you bought your own house as young woman in the 1950s. You were and still are a fun loving and strong woman. I love you dearly and know that we all gained an angel. As much as this hurts, I am comforted by the fact that you are now joined with your loved ones who passed before. I love you so much. Thank you for always being there for me, especially as a kid. I will never forget everything you did for me.
Love,
Melissa

“ Scott was my bestest friend who lived almost exactly West of my house just across I-94. Once we started hanging out, I met his mom and she always treated me like a son.

I will miss her and cherish the memories I have of her.
