

Janet Eileen Tinnette

December 26, 1942 - October 8, 2023

Janet Eileen Tinnette, age 80 of Clay Township passed into heaven on October 8, 2023. Janet was born on December 26, 1942, to Donald and Helen DeClaire in Detroit, Michigan and grew up in St. Clair Shores. Growing up alongside her dear siblings, the late Robert (Fay) DeClaire and Judy (Paul) Rupersburg, she helped her family by taking care of the home while her parents worked at D & H Market, which they owned. She worked at the Tank Arsenal as a secretary after she graduated and met her Beloved husband John (Danny). They were married in 1964 then moved to Clinton Township where they raised their children Denise (David) Duffy, Douglas (fiancé, Erin Robinson) Tinnette, and the late Steven Tinnette, eventually going on to have eight grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

Janet and her husband, John (Danny), bought property in Bear Lake, Michigan in 1970, they spent many days together building their cabin from the ground up and making it the place for the family and all to enjoy the beauty of the outdoors.

Janet worked for Chippewa Valley Schools as an Administrative Assistant until she retired, and she and John moved to Clay Township. She was a woman of many hats, from ceramics, baking, to loving and caring for animals. She spent her days as a caregiver to her late mother and son, Steven. Janet's kindness touched many people, she will be missed and will always hold a place in our hearts.
