“ *Pat and family,
I was so sorry to learn of the passing of your Mom. I remember running in to her at St. Lawrence upon occasion and eventually a few times at St. Therese. She always seemed happy and spry for her years.
Pat, we surely would have visited you at the funeral home, but I had another surgery on ThursdAY. Please know that I held you in thought and prayer today while you were in Church.
Although these are difficult days, may the memories of your mother bring you comfort and peace.*

“ No one is ever prepared to lose a parent at any age; they've always been there since our earliest memories. Please know that your dear Mom still lives, but in a higher realm, and will be delighted to see you again in Eternity someday. We are certain that she is having a grand family reunion in heaven, and is so proud of all of you. In the meantime, you will see traces of her in smiles and familiar features, you will keep her traditions and cook her recipes and teach your grandchildren her ways. Her DNA will live on through generations, and until you meet again, your friends will hold you up in love and prayer. God bless you with his everlasting peace,

“ Dear Sis:

You will be greatly missed. Marion and I looked forward to our visits with you. We had alot of good times and memories. We always talked often about our vacation with you and Al and the Children in Alpena. The picture of Ben Turpin looking at us when we played cards. We would try to get to the table first so that we would not have to look at him. Love, Nadine & Marion##imported-begin##Nadine Kawa##imported-end##
