“ Dear family, I am sorry about the loss of your loved one Jean P. Mangiapane, and I want to extend my deepest sympathy. After the death of a loved one we sometimes wonder what will become of me now that they're gone. I have found comfort in Matthew 6:25-34, which tells us never, be anxious about the next day, for the next day will have its own anxieties. Please find comfort in these additional bible scriptures Luke 23:43 and John 5:28, 29.

“ *Dear Uncle Pete, Peter, Charlie & Julie & family, So sorry to hear the news...There's so much that should be said at this time, but no words seem adequate. Just hope you know you're being thought about and cared about...and hope you find special comfort in knowing that your Wife & Mother-and all she meant to you-will remain in your heart forever. “ I feel your pain, losing a Mother is hard. I always remember Aunt Jean as being the best dresser. She had such beautiful clothes with scarves, jewelry, everything to match, very fashionable. She would bring her clothes to my mom to mend or fix a hem. I always thought she was a Librarian. Always so nice and soft spoken. May the memories that mean the most to you, live forever in your hearts.
Love and God Bless to All of You. You are in my Prayers
