“ Mother, today is 1 year since your funeral and it seems just like yesterday. I miss you so much. I tell myself your happier now and in a better place, but that doesn't stop the tears from falling. You were and always will be the best mom in the world.

Your loving daughter.

“ Mom, I miss you so much I can't even describe the ache in my heart. I miss seeing you every day. I cook supper or bake something and tell myself I'll take some for ma, and then remember that, no, I won't. My only consolation is that I know your with daddy now. I love you forever. You were the best mom in the whole world.

“ My sincere condolences. I won't say "on your loss" because our loved ones aren't lost....they have just gone into another room in our Father's house and we will join them when it is our time. We are just temporarily separated.

Love you all.##imported-begin##Mary Barker##imported-end##

“ May you know our thoughts and love are with your family in sympathy today. Jean was a joy to know for over 40 some years. She worked for Joseph Brynski at PCC and always had a smile and did her best always. Wish we be with you today but, we will always thank God for knowing such a special lady! We have another angel in heaven!!! Love, Henry and Barbara Brynski and Family##imported-begin##Henry and Barbara Brynski Family##imported-end##
