“ Jeanne was like a second mother to me when I was growing up and probably my first encounter with "unconditional love". She's such a treasure. Her earth journey is over now, time to enjoy the next life. Anyway, mine was was of the many lives that she touched.

It is vey difficult to loose someone so very dear and loving to you. Remember she is now with all of you in spirit and never beyond the reach of your prayers. It is now time to find comfort by wrapping yourselves around the many blessings and loving memories you have all shared with her, your loving mother.

With hugs of love comfort and prayers, Ginny Peltier

I remember whenever I was major ill with something (measles, chickenpox, even tonsils) and wouldn't eat or drink for days, my dear Aunt, somehow, (she didn't drive) made it to our house and brought a big bag of potato chips just for me! Couldn't share with my siblings as I was ill could I? Instant cure and also the cause of my Better Made chip addiction to this day!! I'll miss her always - blessings and love, Diane Abdelnour
