“ Dearest Lisa, Jenna, and Brandon,

I am so sorry for your loss. While distance has kept me away, I always enjoyed seeing you when I visited mom and dad. I cherish the times we laughed together and watching how big the kids had gotten. You do not walk alone and Jeff is walking with you. He is free to do the things he always loved to do in a perfect body. Please know that I am here if you should need me.##imported-begin##Annette Travis##imported-end##

“ To my cousin Barb and Sonny, Jimmy and Lisa, my heartfelt sympathy goes out to you all at this time. I know that the past months have taken a toll on the whole family, but now Jeff isn't suffering anymore. I know that the months ahead will not be easy ones and you all will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers. I will always remember Jeff with that wonderful infectious smile of his and his outgoing personality. He will forever be in my heart.
My love to you all,

“ Dear Mrs. Pagano & Family,

*I was very sorry to read of the death of your husband. This must be an especially difficult time for you and your children. I know how hard it can be to lose your father when you're young. It is my prayer for you and your children that your faith in God and the strength and comfort he can provide will help you to cope and endure in the challenging days ahead. Remember: You are not alone.(Isaiah 41:10) Please take care.

“ Lisa,

I worked with Jeff and you at the NBD in Shelby Twp. I have fond memories of Jeff being a great example, hard worker and friend. He was easy to talk and share laughs with.

My thoughts and prayers are with you, your children and your families.

“ Lisa:

What a gift Jeff was to all of us. We feel very fortunate to have had him as a neighbor and for knowing him for the time that we did. We are there for you, Brandon and Jenna...just say the word. I know that this is not a good bye, but an until we meet again, because some day we will be able to see Jeff again, and this time his body will be perfect and whole...no more pain and no more suffering. When you have some time to yourself, I would like you to go on the computer and check out this song. Put in...I Can Only Imagine by Mercy Me. I would like you to listen to this song. It is beautiful and hopefully it will be a comfort to you.

*Our love and hugs to you,

“ Lisa,
As your Mom and Dad's boat neighbor, they often talked about you and Jeff and the happiness you two shared. My heart aches for you. There are truly no words to help ease the pain and sorrow that comes with losing someone you love. Lean on your family and friends and draw from their strength and love.

“ While words may be of little comfort in this time of grief, please know that we are very sorry for your loss. We hope you find comfort in knowing that you loved, cared for, and gave comfort to Jeff. I will never forget when we were younger how he always made us "younger" cousins laugh. I will never forget how excited he was when he first got his motorcycle and brought it to show everyone. But most of all, I will never forget his beautiful smile. He will always remain in our hearts. God Bless.##imported-begin##Kelly & Caine Hornok##imported-end##

“ Lisa - Although we are many miles away, our hearts are with you. I am so sorry for the loss of Jeff. He was truly a great person, and I smile when I think of him. Hugs those babies tight for me and please know that not a moment goes by that we are not praying and hoping for strength and peace for you and the kids in the coming days. Maya Angelou said "I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." I think there are alot of people who will never forget the kindness of Jeff and how he touched their lives.##imported-begin##Steve, Terry, Sarah and Nate##imported-end##

“ To the Pagano and Olejniczak families,

We were so sad to hear of Jeff's passing. We know that you all worked very hard to make Jeff's days comfortable for him. We did not know Jeff well but be assured that he was thankful for your love and compassion.

It was very apparent to us when we attended the gathering at the bowling alley fundraiser that you all had many friends and acquaintances who supported you. Be assured that their support will continue in the future.

Love to you all.##imported-begin##Art and Sue Brooks##imported-end##

“ Barb and Sonny,
So, so sorry about your loss. I didn't know Jeff. Saw him once in the Lakeshore pool when our children were having swimming lessons many, many years ago. Time flies and friends grow apart.
Again, my condolences to you and to his family.
Love,

“ Margaret and I send our deepest SYMPATHY. To The Family of Jeff Pagano.

I was very fortunate to have been able to work with Jeff as his supervisor at Taystee Bread. I will always remember the first day I met him when he came to the Farmington Depot. I had a nice conversation with his Father on the phone one day and he asked me how Jeff was doing and I stated that I wish I had 15 more salesmen like him my job would of been much easier.

Lisa I am the guy that always called him JUNIOR.

WE KNOW THAT JEFF IS IN A BETTER PLACE.

“ My heart goes out to the family of Jeff Pagano. We all know how much Jeff cared about his family and friends. Now Jeff can see how much we care and miss him. I will never forget the times Jeff would beat me every game of playing one-on-one basketball at his parents house. He wanted to good things in life and he brought happiness to people around him.##imported-begin##James Balkenhol##imported-end##
