“ Helen - I never knew "Jiffy" but I know you and know that he must have been one of the greatest ever. I am so very sorry that you two lost your battle with his cancer. I have thought of you every day since I heard the news. You are in my prayers and in my heart and my thoughts. I wish you peace and comfort and friendship and love.

“ My deepest sympathies to the Engelhard family. May you find comfort in the loving memories you shared together. I know at this time your hearts are heavy and broken, an as a Bible reader I have found comfort form the words found at Psalms 34:18 that assures, " Jehovah(God's personal name in english)is near to those that are broken at heart, And those who are crushed in spirit he saves." So may you too find comfort in"the God of all comfort" at this very sad time.

“ Helen, I know I haven't seen you much in the last few years, I have enjoyed your posts on face book. you and your family are in my prayers. Don my husband is also wishing you well, and saying a prayer for you. He and I remember when Connie and Jay was married so many years ago, and Jeff stood up with Don and they had a lot of laughs together, remember the good times, Karen and Don Burke

Jeff, THANK YOU so very much for being my friend.....I don't know how to express what a joy it was to have known you while you were here.....It just warmed my heart every time I saw one of your posts come up.....I know I live a long ways away from Helen and Heather, so obviously I can't actually physically be there.....but I promise you that my chat will ALWAYS be open for Helen if they need me.....I love you, my friend, and I am gonna miss you and those posts....."Annie's Up!!!" Rest in peace.....

“ Uncle Jiffy, i will never forget you. I will always remember you with a smile on your face and your positive attitude. You were/are a great inspiration to others and will definitely keep me strong and positive. Now you can eat whatever you want, whenever you want, without a restaurant telling you they're out of it. You will be missed by many.
