“ Foremost, Jen loved her 2 boys, loved being Luke and Noah's mother. During the recent years' struggles she would say, "I'll figure it out." She kept a Detroit Zoo membership so Noah could readily visit his beloved animals. Not just a pretty face with a fashionable hair style, I heard her lovely voice when we sang Happy Birthday to Luke on his 13th, singing the harmony and pitch perfect.

“ I remember playing catch with Jennifer as a kid and she clearly was very talented. She made the all star teams when she played hardball in the boys little league. She was always so nice to me and our entire family. RIP my cousin and friend.
