“ Dear Rick, Catherine and Brian:
Our deepest sympathy go your way in for the loss of Jen, a wonderful and beautiful person. We pray for God's peace to fill your hearts and may you sense his comforting arms around you. Jen, we know that now you are in God's presence with a new body and you suffer no more, this thought alone gives us the strength to carry on.

“ Dear Rick and family.
I would like to express my deepest sympathy at the loss of your wife and mother of Brian and Catherine. Be assured of our prayers and remembrance of Jen during mass in the coming days. It is comforting to know that so many people are praying for you. Jen is near to all of you even now when you can't see her. She will intercede before the seat of God for you. Just ask her and she will help you. God bless and may he give you the strength to care on.##imported-begin##John Vajdik##imported-end##

“ Dearest Rick, Brian, Catherine, Dennis, Tina, JD & Kathy,

No words can adequately express the sorrow I have in my heart for one of my sweetest, dearest, closest, and loving friends.

When we moved next door to each other, Jen and I both knew that God had a reason for that, and we used to talk about it, time and time again.

Little did we know that we would develop such a deep, personal, loving & wonderful friendship.

The love I had for Brian was immediate, and when Cath was born that love became twofold. They will forever be part of my extended family, as will all of you.

Jen and I were always here for each other, and I will certainly be here for you, no matter how small or great the need may be.

She will forever be in our thoughts & hearts. May all of you be comforted by God's Love knowing that she is now at peace and in Heaven right along side her mother and grandparents. Heaven has just been granted another divine Angel.

And to you Jen, one day we will again be neighbors. Until then, thank you for all that you have done these past 9 years to make my life so blessed with your love & friendship. I will truly miss you! You are gone, but our relationship will last forever!

With our Deepest & Sincerest Sympathy.

Much Love,

Sue & Bill##imported-begin##SUE SCHMITT-MATZEN##imported-end##
