“ Jenny, I've been missing you a lot lately! I hope you are in no pain now and that you are looking down on all of us smiling with your beautiful smile. What I'd give to talk to you one more time! To give you one more hug! I remember how much fun we had living in Tennessee! You being able to hold the cattle fence without getting shocked while the rest of us crawled under it getting shocks on our bottoms if we touched it. I can't wait to see you again Jen! All my Love Forever and you will never be forgotten!!! In loving memory, your cousin, Irvin Paull

“ Hey Jenny.... Awe I've been lookin for ya for 20 years..... If I seen old friends I'd ask them if they seen ya, I looked for you on Facebook, something made me look here the other day..... I've been missing you for so long, but I'm so sorry.... It seems literally like yesterday we were teenagers..... You were my Best, Best, Best, Best Friend..... And still are.

“ Sometimes there are miracle babies. Sometimes there are people who can light up an entire room with just their smile. Sometimes there are people who can make everything okay with just the sweet sound of their laughter. Some people make everything just a little bit better just by being there. They walk into any situation and can steal the show. She was one of those people. As I looked around, I saw so many people, friends and family, people whose lives she had touched at one time or another. We are all blessed to have had her in our lives, at any time. She will be dearly missed, our hearts ache. She was truly beautiful, and we all knew it.

All my love,
Steven

“ Words cannot describe the pain that you are going through at this time. There is a piece gone now that can never be replaced. Please remember her in the good and funny times and never lose sight of the impact she made in the lives of many! Miss your funny text messages and planning fun stuff for the kids!!! I promised you that I would make sure that the kids kept in touch and stayed close friends!! I will honor that promise. I didn't know that it would not include you! I wish I knew how deep your pain was! I would have taken some of it for you! - Shanette, Aubrey and Jesse

“ Conley family,

I am terribly sorry for your loss. The loss of a loved one is something we should never have to experience, especially at such a young age. Wishing you my sincerest condolences and hoping to offer a bit of comfort. (Rev. 21:3,4) Your family will be in my prayers.

“ Hey Jen,

I was reading our texts that go back to the month of May! Some made me smile and giggle and the other ones made me shake my and cry! I wish I would've done more, said more, been there for you more. I'm so sorry that I didn't spend more time with you. I'm sorry that you were in so much pain. I'm sorry I wasn't the sister you always wanted me to be! I miss you so much Jen! I know you will always be with me. I will do all that I can for Austin and Briana. I know your their angel and your my light! I will forever keep your light shining within me. I want to thank all of you who Jenny has touched. We all share our own memories. Thank you for taking the time to stop, say a prayer, write a memory, lite a candle and send comfort to us all.

“ While going through pictures today there were so many happy memories of Jenny but the one I love the best (can't find the pic) is one of Jenny and Shannon singing Karaoke at sis Judy's house on Christmas. Such beautiful girls and voices! What a memory! Some might remember the electric fence (David LOL). Miss ya Jenny but know you are with God and Grandma Daisy now and not in pain. Love ya forever!!!!

“ Jenny, (cousin John)
I'll always remember all the great times we all shared growing up. I'll never forget you grabbing the electric fence when we lived in Tennessee, like it was nothing. RIP Jenny.

“ Jen, I miss you so much! I miss you getting so mad at me for everything I did! I only wanted to help you Jen. I am grateful that when the angels came and carried you to that place of perfect life, perfect love, and perfect joy, that you are now pain free, perfect as you always wanted to be. I know that your an angel to many, just don't forget about me! I LOVE YOU JENNY! !
