“ I had the pleasure of working with Jennifer for a little while when Chemical and TCF merged and she was a gem. So friendly and helpful. We always had a laugh when we would start a call meeting - She was very smart as well. My heartfelt condolences go to her son, Derek and the rest of the family. Such a shock and an empty place to fill. Hold onto your memories, the laughter and joy you shared with her. May you have peace during this time.

“ Jennifer and I had a rather auspicious beginning at work and over time became very close associates and friends. They say everyone should have a close friend at work, and Jennifer was exactly this to many of us, myself included. Her kindness, honesty, trust, empathy, and loyalty were exceptional qualities. My condolences to all the family, friends, and work associates who are mourning her loss, especially her son Derek. I'm praying for peace and comfort to all during this difficult time.
