“ Every summer of my childhood our family packed into the Ford car of the year 😊 to visit my mom's family. We stayed with my Aunt Joan and Uncle Wally and were always treated with the comforts of home and delicious food! With that we were also able to develop life long friendships with our cousins. I am thinking of all of you and pray for you as you navigate this new chapter. Now our moms are visiting in paradise. ❤️

“ I will always cherish my Aunt Joan playing the Organ at her Home in Madison Heights and her sisters Norma and Helen would join her in a song! They were all very talented singers! Always a very warm Family get together at my Aunt Joan's House!!!! One of Many great memories I will ALWAYS Cherish! Oh Yeah! My Aunt Joan and Uncle Walter would always serve a Delicious meal every time we visited! God Bless You, I will miss You every day until we can all be together again in Heaven with Jesus and all of are Family members that have passed before Us!!!! Love You Dearly!
