

Joan M. Fiori

October 22, 1931 - April 5, 2020

Joan M. Fiori of Farmington Hills, MI was welcomed into the arms of the Lord as she passed away quietly on Palm Sunday, April 5, 2020. Born in Detroit, MI to Joseph and Irene (Cogo) Fiori on October 22, 1931. Joan resided in the city for much of her life where she attended school at St. Elizabeth's, worked at Eastern Market and eventually enjoyed a long career at National Bank of Detroit where she finally retired from. She was a woman of strong faith and spirit, yet had a very warm and pleasant disposition and enjoyed the company of family and friends amid her many pastimes and social environments. Her 2 greatest pleasures in life were travelling and the Detroit Red Wings, both of which she enjoyed tirelessly at every opportunity. Joan was a gentle, thoughtful beautiful soul with sparkling eyes, an infectious smile, a kind word and a gift of happiness for all that she met. Her thoughtful and generous nature extended not only to family and friends but she often unselfishly gave to many charities and organizations as well. She was enjoyed by all and will be greatly missed by her loving cousins, her godson and many other cherished relatives and friends. Joan will be interred at Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Detroit where she will rest peacefully beside other loving family members. A celebration of her life will be held at a future date for family and friends. Memorials can be made in her honor to the Detroit Zoo or the Capuchin Soup Kitchen in Detroit.

“ Bob and I are so sad to learn of Joan's passing. She is a member of our parish St. Gerald and that is where we met. and began a friendship. She shared many memories of her life living in Detroit, her travels and her love of the Red Wings, when young girls were not expected to like the sport. Joan and my husband shared many conversations about the Wings. Joan is reunited with her mother in heaven. Rest in peace Joan, we will miss you very much. Bob and Toni Varteresian
