

Joan Mae McMath

May 13, 1955 - May 27, 2019

Joan Mae McMath, born May 13, 1955 made her way to Heaven on Monday, May 27, 2019 after an incredibly heroic battle with Glioblastoma Multiforme. Joan was a wife and “very bestest friend” to her surviving husband, Tom McMath of 25 loving years. Together they raised their 4 children, Madison (Timothy) McMath-Johnson, Scott (Lilly Kem) Wolchok, Griffin McMath and Jennifer (Brett) Schryer. She was a proud and loving grandmother of 3 beautiful grandchildren; Benjamin, Fletcher, and Aurelia.

Joan is also survived by her parents Fred and Barb Housner, brothers; Randy (Cindy), Greg (Marybeth) and Jeff (Allison) Housner. We will all miss her very much and nothing can ever fill the void she leaves behind. The world is a more beautiful place because of her.

Visitation will be on Sunday from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at the Wasik Funeral Home, Inc, 49150 Schoenherr Rd. (N. of 22 Mile Rd.) Shelby Twp. Instate on Monday at the church from 10:00 a.m. until a 11:00 a.m. funeral service at King of Kings Lutheran Church, 45700 Schoenherr (N. of 21 Mile Rd.) Shelby Twp. Private interment at the Great Lakes National Cemetery.

“ I was sad to hear of my friend and neighbor's passing, Joan always had a smile for everyone.....I would see her practice her golf swing in the back yard she would stop and then we would chat for awhile.....Tom would bring her over to my garage sales in her wheel chair giving her a chance to chat..this gave me the opportunity to say Hi, Love your Hat, and re-wrap her with her blanket as she would get chilly in her wheel chair, even then she tried her hardest to smile and not complain....I have great admiration for Joan and Tom, may God Bless both of them and help Tom at this difficult time.

“ I was very sad to hear the news about Joan. She was a mentor, boss, and most of all great friend to me. I really admired her work ethic and smarts. She gave me the opportunity to work for her and really lead by example. Even when we weren't working together she was always available for advice whether it was career related or personal. She was always pleasant to have around and always made people laugh. She also taught me the importance of family, whom she always talked about with great fondness. I'm really going to miss her friendship.

“ Jerry and I send our sympathy to Tom and Joan’s families. Joan has left us, but the essence of who she was will forever remain with all those whose lives she touched. She was my dear friend, so energetic, fun-loving and dedicated to life and her family, and then suddenly and quietly, she gave us all a lesson in how to face adversity with courage and faith. I will miss her terribly, but I feel so blessed to have had her in my life.

“ My sympathies to the McMath/Housner families. I have been blessed to be able to call Joanie my friend since our Bridgeport days. Her friendship was sincere, supportive, and never judgemental. It was a friendship in the purest form. Our conversations would pick up right where we left off no matter the length of separation or distance. She made a difference in my life and in so many others. I will miss my “forever” friend.

“ Joan was a sweet, intelligent, caring person that I loved knowing. May God strengthen her family and hold them in His arms as he is holding Joan.
