

Joan Miller

August 7, 1936 - May 8, 2026

Joan Miller was born on August 7, 1936 and passed away on May 8, 2026. Joan was a devoted nurse whose compassion and dedication defined both her career and her character. She proudly served patients at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, as well as in home care nursing with Henry Ford Health, including work in a dialysis unit where her steady care and kindness made a lasting difference in the lives of many.

Outside of her professional life, Joan found great joy in simple pleasures and time well spent. She especially loved being on the water with her husband, enjoying fishing and boating together on their boat. She also had a playful side and was well known for her fondness of slot machines, holding loyalty cards at all the local casinos she enjoyed visiting.

Joan was the beloved wife of the late John Edward Miller. She is the loving mother of Michael (Helen) Miller and Robert (Linda) Miller. She was a proud grandmother to Clark (Kathleen) Miller, Caroline Miller, Amber (Lee) James, Robert (Michelle) Miller, and Veronica (Fred) Hahn. She was also a deeply proud great-grandmother to Nevaeh, Izaak, Jakob, Talia, Cecilia, and Leia.
