“ Life has changed, not ended.

It's difficult to process the loss of an individual whose aura, essence, and influence was so momentous. The epitome of selflessness, faith, and strength. She truly had a heart of gold. She never let the many trials in her life harden her heart, and instead chose to live a life of gratitude and service, helping others through the hospital and the church for decades.

Gammy was the matriarch of our family. The glue that held us all together. With her passing, our lives are forever changed and a tremendous void is now present. It is numbing. But how blessed we are to call her our 'Gammy.'

“ My sincere condolences to the Trubiano family. It seems like the times I was blessed to talk with JoAnn were usually in regard to a sickness or death in our extended families, but there were other occasions too. It was always a pleasure to speak with her, or see her on a couple of occasions at Mass. She was always so kind--a woman who radiated much warmth. My prayers are with you. May our dear Lord welcome his daughter JoAnn into paradise. Yours in Christ Jesus, Bob Voiland

“ My condolences to the Trubiano family. Mrs. Trubiano was a wonderful lady. I remember how nice she always was to me when as a child I would visit Mary Grace in the lively house at the end of Ridge Road! As my brother said, she was so good to our dad in his final years, after our mother died. Rest in peace, Mrs. Trubiano. Karen Biland Styles

Beautiful Dreams - November 02, 2020 at 12:00 AM

“ My mother, Veronica (Roni) "The Whistler" Kish , had the joy of being dear friends with JoAnn. They spent countless hours and years working together at St. Joseph / Henry Ford Hospital, as nurses. Their friendship grew through many excursions to countless churches & monasteries, working together in gardens, attending church functions, and numerous joint family activities. JoAnn's gift to the world was her ability to give of herself and care for others. We have been blessed by her presence when she was with us. If we do nothing else during our individual lifetime, we should strive to emulate JoAnn's light and kindness. Donna Kish (daughter of Roni Kish) 10/2/2020

“ JoAnn will be missed by many. For three years of my late husband's cancer treatment, JoAnn was at St. Joseph Hospital helping us through treatments and surgeries. Every time Jim Hoover went to the hospital, JoAnn was there. She was professional, thoughtful, caring and a beacon of light to many. Great loving and caring mother, devout in her religion and a great friend to all. With love and prayers to all the family. From Lynne Hoover Musilli

“ Stephanie, endings are always so very sad. Not knowing your grandmother I can only assume she was a wonderfully kind and loving woman, because those characteristics are a large part of who you are. I am truly sorry you have to go through this pain. My thoughts are with you.

“ From the very first moment I met Joann twenty years ago, her infectious smile and loving heart embraced me as though I was her own child. As time went on she introduced me to Ann Marie and our bond of love and family and those very threads became stronger. The three of us shared so many wonderful moments - both joyous and tear filled, but together we stood. Those experiences and the footprints on my heart from Joann and the love she has passed onto Ann Marie are truly blessings from God. Though bittersweet these moments, my heart is full for the privilege that I have had to know Joann and to be a small part of her loving heart. Heaven's sky is truly brighter today and Joann's beautiful soul will continue to shine upon us and keep our lives and our hearts forever in her light. My love and prayers to all. Susan Lahay

“ So sorry for your loss. Joann was certainly special and I understand one of the 'mom's' of the neighborhood when the neighborhood was full of kids. Because we have parsley in the front yard, for the taking, sometime she would pull in after morning Mass for some. I am just glad we had the opportunity to visit on one of my morning walks and again at Eddie's wedding. Katie Dailey 54590

“ Gammy was always so welcoming and caring no matter what time of the day or night you walked through her door. Always making sure there was something for us to eat and she even would share her sauerkraut with me Haha. She was full of love for all her family and friends. What a great woman she was. She will be dearly missed.
