

Joanna Kolodge

January 1, 1944 - December 6, 2025

Joanna Shirley Kolodge died on December 6, 2025 at 81 years of age. Her mother was Shirley Edwards. Joanna was born in Detroit, Michigan on January 1, 1944. She graduated valedictorian from Clintondale High School in 1961. Following high school, Joanna went to Michigan State University for a short period of time and then began working for General Motors where she worked for 37 years. Joanna proudly worked her way up to a supervisory role in part specifications and retired in 2000.

Joanna Kolodge met her husband, Michael Steven Kolodge, in 1965 and were married on May 4, 1968. Joanna had two children, Sean and Dustin Kolodge. She was very involved in travel hockey, managing her sons' hockey teams and promoting the sport. Joanna had a sister, Merri Zelenak and a brother, Robert Edwards. The marriage to her husband, Michael, began her relationship to sister-in-law Anne and Frank DiClementi. Joanna had two nieces, Jamie Hyre and Katie Alter. She had one nephew, Jared DiClementi. In 1998, Kristin Kolodge, Sean's wife, entered her life as "the daughter she never had". Joanna has two grandchildren, Drew and Cora Kolodge. Joanna loved her family dearly.

Joanna's passions involved reading and traveling. She spent her retirement years with her husband, traveling out west and to Russia. Joanna also spent many years volunteering at events for the NRA and Ducks Unlimited.

Funeral services will be held at Wasik Funeral Home on December 13, 2025 from 12pm to 6pm with a funeral service at 1pm.

Memorials may be made to Wounded Warriors or Huron Pointe Sportsman's Association.
