“ First, let me say, I didn't know, Joanne L. Neil, but I do know how it feels to lose a love one in death. You never forget them. Why? Because we have pictures, videos, vacations, picnics and gatherings with them. There is hope of seeing our love ones again. At Isaiah 26:19 says, " Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, you residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, and the Earth will let those powerless in death come to life." That is good news. Wouldn't you say. Please read it in your Bible. Laurie

“ Jennifer and Tom,
What a gift your Mom was! A ray of sunshine, always full of life and love. We will miss her laughter, her sense of humor, sharing stories and her warm-hearted sincerity. She spoke often of you both and was infinitely proud of you and her grandkids. She's now at peace and, no doubt, dancing with your Dad. We'll always think of her when we hear Neil Diamond sing "Sweet Caroline"... and smile.

“ Jennifer and Tom,
Your mother and I spent many years together as educators. She was always the one who brought everyone together for many after school good times and friendly gatherings. She was a genuinely generous person for her entire life. She will be dearly missed.

*Tom and Jennifer: I remember both your Mother Joanne and Father Tom as frequent visitors at my Sisters' home and lovingly interacting with them as true loyal friends in so many wonderful events in our family. Your Mother was kind, generous with time and energy, encouraging, enthusiastically involved with the lives of those who had the gift of knowing her. Memories of her will live on in others forever.

“ Jennifer and Tom and grandchildren, I am so sorry for your loss. Your mom was such a caring, funny, compassionate person. She welcomed me to Jefferson Middle School when I started there with such open arms. We shared so many laughs together as the counselor and social worker when there were situations and that is all we could do. We had such a nice visit when I saw her in the hospital. And as usual in Joanne fashion, she asked me about what was going on in my life, it never was just about her. I will miss her as I know all of you will. I know how much she loved your dad and I am glad they are reunited.

*To Joanne's Family,
I worked and played with Joanne:) She was such a fun and thoughtful lady, always interested in what other people were doing. She was always so excited about her family and sharing her enthusiasm and empathy for everyone in the family. She was always up for an adventure and lived a full and thoughtful life.
I know she didn't want to leave her family and friends so she will continue to look out for everyone she loved.
I was lucky to have known Joanne.

Joanne and I were old e-mail friends. Always loved her optimism. We discussed plastic surgery and Liam's health as I have a son who has dealt with many issues. I am truly going to miss her. Stay strong for her. Linda Singerman
