“ Madeline, Jim, Jenn and Evan

*Gary, Erin and I are so sorry to learn of your loss. These trying days I pray have made you all a stronger family. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Jim, his brother, sisters and extended family. I too feel that Jodean and Charlie are dancing up a storm, playing cards, taking long walks, waving down from heaven watching over all of you. They raised a good strong family and I believe you ALL will go forth to do great things in their memory for your own families and society. This I am sure of!

“ I worked with Jodean in Branch Operations in the early 70's! I was right out of high school, newly married and had lost my mother at a young age. Jodean was the nicest, kindest person - during the time we worked together she took me under her wing and guided me - personally and professionally. That was her way. I am fortunate that our paths crossed. She was very very proud of her children-she always had a beaming smile and even more so when she talked about her children. My deepest sympathies and prayers go out to Jodean's family. Treasure the memories and pass them on to future generations - she will never be forgotten!

“ Dear Betty Lynn and Dave,

I remember Jodean with deep affection and her kindness to me on my first assignment to Branch Operations in 1973. Maybe this poem, spoken at my great grandmother's funeral will be of some solace:

*Just a length'ning of the shadows,
Just a short'ning of the breath,
Just a graying of the features ---
Is this dying? Is it death?
Just a rest for weary footsteps,
Just a folding of tired hands,
Just a glimpse across the river
Where the Holy City stands.
Just a closing of the eyelids,
Just a hush, why mourn and weep?
So it is the Heavenly Father
Giveth his beloved sleep.
Death? As, yes, we call it dying,
When six feet of earth is thrust
O'er the temple of our loved ones,
And dust returns to dust.
But when all mists have vanished,
And we meet on yon' bright shore,
We shall know 'twas the entrance
Unto life evermore.##imported-begin##Don Hooper##imported-

“ I'm grateful that I was able to work with Jodean at the Bank. We commuted together and Jodean's happy outlook kept me smiling each work week.##imported-begin##Mary Lou Arnoldy##imported-end##

“ I would like to share some of my memories of Jodean (Mrs.)Conover.

She had the most wonderful southern drawl and a truly beautiful laugh.

She shared her sweet mother (Mrs. Hill) with not just her own family, but with all of us.

If you were lucky enough to spend the night with the Conover's you could anticipate popcorn at night while watching TV and Pineapple juice and toast in the morning.

I spent many hours at her home and she always made me feel welcomed.

You could tell that she so proud of her family and she and her husband and mother helped us to form lifelong friendships with her children and for that I will always be grateful.

My thoughts and prayers are with her entire family for I know to lose your Mother is one of life's saddest moments and especially so soon after the passing of your father.

I believe that her work on this earth was finished and God called her home (before the street lights came on,of course).

She is whole again and at peace.

My Deepest Sympathy,
