“ So sorry for your loss ... I remember when we were all teenagers coming to your house and how nice he was ... he treated all of us like we were his kids! I remember those days fondly. I plan on being at the funeral, but I wanted to leave this note in case we did not get to talk. Know that I am thinking and praying for you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Sue Anderson Craft##imported-end##

“ Our hearts were broken by the news of Uncle Joe's passing. We wish we could find some words sufficient to ease the pain of the Lang Family. Just know that our sorrow runs a very deep, because our minds are filled with so many pleasant memories from the past. From Wiffle-ball in the backyard of the family house on Collinson, getting together on Labor Day as the Jerry Lewis Telethon ended, to meeting up in Daytona Beach, Fla., Uncle Joe occupies center stage, with his handsome smile and gentle laugh. And who can forget the marathon Sunday night phone calls between Aunt Ethel, Aunt Betty, and Uncle Joe? Our thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Joe, Jeff, Debra and Ava Randa##imported-end##
