*I miss her too, Gerri, as well as your father. I haven't seen her in about 40 years, but I can never forget how well she took care of you, Barry, and your father. She seemed to run a 24/7 kitchen in that house in Warren, making sure you were all well fed. I don't think I have seen you since after you moved into that quad level house that you were rightfully so proud of. I haven't seen Barry since Wayne's funeral, and would love to reconnect with you both. I think I have an old picture of your little Traci somewhere, though she must be all grown up by now. - Jay Odendahl
