“Uncle John” my Godfather, was a big part of all our families. As a kid I remember him stopping by our house on Sparling on his way to Tiger Stadium , if I was home he'd take me to the Tiger Game. Or if my sister Sue was home she would get to go. We would always stop at the Coney Island after the game for hot dogs. I think Uncle John may have had a big part in our love of baseball. The Tiger game was always on the radio at the many family get togethers at Beechwood , Alcoy or on Bell. He was so generous with his time for others.
He's now up in “ The Good Guy Hall of Fame “

“ The memories I cherish of my Uncle John will always be in my heart and never forgotten. Growing up, my Uncle John would come over every Sunday to visit us. I looked forward to seeing him. We had a very special bond. He promised to make me a homemade pizza when I turned 16. I asked him last week when can I expect my pizza, because it's been over 40 years. He laughed and said he would make it next week. I will never forget the stories you shared with me, and how blessed to have you for an Uncle. Rest in peace. I will miss you.
