

John Lee Carroll

April 6, 1949 - August 21, 2023

John Lee Carroll

Passed away into the arms of his Heavenly Father on August 21, 2023, at the age of 74. Born on April 6, 1949 to his late parents Ambrose and Alva Carroll. John was the beloved husband of Nancy Carroll for 46 wonderful years. Loving father of John Carroll, April (Randy) Hyduk, Aaron (Kelly) Carroll, and Stephanie (Tim) Daniels. Proud grandfather of Brandon Hyduk, Samantha Carroll, Nichole Hyduk, and Parker Daniels. Dear brother of Daniel (Kim) Carroll, Donna Gage, and Sharon Hudson. He leaves behind many other loving family members and friends. John obtained a bachelors degree at William Tyndale College. He belonged to the Sheetmetal Local 80. John retired from Chrysler as an engineering manager. He later went on to be an independent project manager for Aristeo Construction. His unique craftsmanship and dedication to his trade help build the addition to the Rock Church where he worshipped. John was a true patriarch of his family. His greatest joy in life was serving his Lord and spending quality time with his family.

“ John and I worked very closely together at McGraw Class Plant for about 15 years. I could write a book about our times together. We often talked about our faith and we were convinced we saw God's hand working in many of the challenges for which we were responsible. John was a good man, respected by many and I was honored to work so closely with him for all those years. I will see you later when I get there my dear friend.
