“ Cathy, Rosanne, John and the entire Catina family, our deepest condolences. John, was a very special man and wonderful friend. We always enjoyed our time together having our "chats" about family and all the positive memories of his life. He was truly a one of a kind individual. Continue to have happy memories of your time together. God Bless.

“ To a man who had the biggest heart. To a man who loved life. I feel blessed to have called him Uncle. To my cousin's Cathy, John, Roseanne and families, I will never forget the countless weekends we spent together and the only solace is that he's back with Auntie Nay surrounded by family in Heaven.
