“ One of my favorite pictures of Jack and myself shooting pool at Rock Bottoms during our annual trip to the Chicago Blues Festival with the gang. Always a blast sharing fun times and being with our friends Jack and Gail. This picture sums it all up. Jack's great personality, his love for life, family and friends. Jack always had a special way with treating his friends with love and class. To many he was known as "Ripper" and "Gentleman Jack" because of his classiness. I referred to Jack as "Daddy Jack" because of our long , close and dear relationship, But also his debonair worldly mentoring you would picked up being around such a knowledgeable, loving and caring person. I will dearly miss Jack, but all the fun times, love and great memories will live on in our hearts forever. Our deepest love and prayers to Gail and family.

“ One of my first memories of Jack was when I was a kid sitting in an expensive waterfront restaurant with Jack and my dad. I didn't know what to order because I knew Jack was paying and everything cost so much. So I asked him what I should have. He leaned over and looked at the menu with me. He said "when you're with Uncle Jack you find the most expensive thing and order that". He scans down and says "there it is, surf and turf, sounds good to me". Lol. He was always such a wonderful person to be around.
