“ John was a second dad to me. I will always remember all the things he did for me and all the happy times that he made for me with the family. The boat trips, going to the car races and even going down to Ohio to help butcher the hogs!

He was a good man to everyone he met.

With love and great sympathy,

“ I always felt the love from you and Mom from the moment I married into the Harmon family. You were the Dad I never had. So many memories of you thru the years. I will always remember the family dinners we all shared together around the dining room table every weekend..... talking and laughing together while enjoying Mom's great cooking. I love you. Ginny

“ Dad was the only living father I ever knew and I am so sad that I have not been able to be there for all of you right now. Please know that my heart is with you.
I was made to feel loved and treated just like the other kids from the moment I walked in the door. I will miss you.

He wasn't just my uncle, he was like a second father. In my younger days I spent a lot of time with the family. I haven't in along time. But this will always be my family and my heart is broken for all of you. Love You, Debbie

I will always remember John from my younger years of growing up on the east side of Detroit when I hung out with his kids at their house. I will always remember how he and Eulene opened up their home to me but will never forget his kind heart and big smile. My prayers go out to the entire family. May you always R.I.P. John Henry.

John Henry Harmon was so much more to me than a brother-in-law. I credit him and my sister Eulene with opening so many doors to opportunities for me when I went to live with them when Susan and Steve were babies. My life has been so enriched by him and my world will always feel emptier without this wonderful man in it.
