“ Hello Linda, I'm sending my condolences... My Father passed away several years ago. He also suffered from cancer. Upon his death I learned a great deal about what I refer to as "Life's Greatest Lesson", and that is Death. So much for that....Perhaps I do read the obituaries to often...I still miss the John Harrida sign that graced the State Farm Insurance office on Harper Ave.. It always reminded me of the wonderful young woman that hung out on the seventh floor of the federal court house. She sure made me feel pleasant throughout my workdays. Those feelings are priceless. I notice the resemblance between your Dad and Yourself. What a handsome guy! Thanks for the memories... Pete Marchand###imported-begin###Pierre R. Marchand###imported-end###

“ My sympathies to John's family. John, Irv Gurnack, my brother Bob and I were great buddies in the late forties. John was the best bowler of the bunch and I will always remember him for introducing me to the world of Jazz. I haven't seen John in years but I remember him as if it were yesterday.###imported-begin###Ron Schutter###imported-end###

“ Dear Mrs. Harrida, John, Susan, Linda, Carol, & Paul,

My deepest sympathy for the loss of a very wonderful and gentle man. I've always felt like part of the family, and that was because of You, Mrs. Harrida and Mr. Harrida, you made me feel at home with your family and that is what I will always keep in my heart. You two were the best insurance agents my sister and I have ever had (we are still with State Farm.) I will miss him very much. All my Love, Michele##imported-begin##Michele Pazur##imported-end##

“ John was just a joy to talk to. Although I didn't know him for a long time, we seemed to enjoy talking to each other. He expressed to me a number of times how much he loved his grandchildren. As difficult is is for them at this time, just think how terrible it would have been if they had never known him at all. As Rachel's father-in-law, I want to let her know that it was obvioius that she had a great relationship with her grandfather. Not everyone can say that. Pam and my condolences to all of the family.##imported-begin##Victor John Koos##imported-end##
