“ Dear family,
Please accept my deepest sympathy on your loss. I hope that you can draw some comfort from the bible during this difficult time. According to the Bible, there will be a time when we will see our dead loved ones again. For example, (Acts 24:15) "and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Please know that God is grieving on your loss too. For more information, please visit <http://www.jw.org>

“ Carolyn,

My heart is heavy for your loss. John was always there every Saturday welcoming everybody to St. Blase. He always had a special spot in my moms heart (Betty) and now with her recent passing I am sure she as cleared the direct path to The Lord for John.

May The Lord give you the strength you will need in this journey of grief. My prayers are for you, John and your entire family.

“ To Carolyn and family,

I am deeply sorry to hear of John's untimely passing, John will always be remember for his gentle ways, concern for the St. Blasé community, willingness to help and to share his faith.

I will always remember the times of chatting before and after 4 o'clock mass on Saturdays. He was very helpful in helping with Parish nurse ministry and the flu clinics. It will be very strange to walk into the gathering space for Saturday mass and not see his smiling face and willingness to help people with kind words, opening doors and helping those in need.

Keep close all the good memories and remember he will not be forgotten for he touched all those he came in contact with.

May the Good Lord give you strength and comfort you in the days.

God bless.

“ To Carolyn, Diana and Derek and family,

Jerry and I want you to know that we will always remember John as a wonderful, very tender and steadfast man with a great sense of humor. We've had the pleasure of sharing meals, laughing and joking at gatherings and are forever grateful of his patience with my awful card playing.

We will most definitely miss seeing him at the Welcome Desk before mass. We always looked for him when entering the gathering space. We will always remember him in these little ways.

At this sad time for you and your family, we know that words are of little consolation but we rejoice that John has now joined the Communion of Saints ... all those faithful men and women who've gone before. John has a new beginning because our hope is in Christ and we remain rooted to the promise of the Resurrection.

We sincerely ask our Lord to impart his strengthening grace upon you and your family and that you allow those who love you to minister to you and become be the hands and eyes of our Lord.

*With our deepest sympathy and sincere love,

“ Carolyn, Derek, Diana and Family:

It's the little things that you'll remember. The laughs, the stories, the smiles, the beautiful life you shared together as a family. Although it is difficult today to see beyond the sorrow and pain, I pray that looking back in beautiful memory will help to comfort all of you. I know that there are no words today that can help ease the pain and loss you are feeling, but please know that you will all remain in each and every thought and prayer. I feel blessed to have a beautiful memory of John from Thanksgiving that I will cherish always.

With much love
