John we go way back and I have so so many memories to cherish. I will share one. You lived in an apt above me. My 3 year old daughter had a kite and wanted to fly it. I couldn't get it to go up so you came to our rescue. You said give me that ()$($! Thing so you started running backward it started going up so you ran faster and you were doing a great job Margene was so excited then you hit the parked car you made that awful ugh sound and hit the ground. Sorry John I'm still laughing. You just had a gift to make ppl laugh. One more memory was when you and Tom and Clyde and squeak worked together at lunch time they sent you to D Q for lunch. They told you to get 6 brassiere burgers instead of Brazer burger. He came back with that bottom lip out mad as a wet him. Well of course the other 3 were rolling on the ground (all most) laughing. And he's like yea real funny. Everyone in DQ were laughing as me. You can go get your own lunch from now on. John you were truly a great friend with a heart of gold you lived for your family. You will be forever missed. Prayers for your family. May the lord be with them all.

My dearest John I met you by trying out for your softball team I was told in advance it's very hard to make your team but I tried anyhow. Most of those girls you scouted from college teams I had only started playing softball after high school. What I needed to hide from you was that I could only catch and throw with my left hand. There were no lefties in my family so I could only use a right handed glove I knew I was good at it I could take it off and you'd never know the difference. Fast forward, I made the cut and just before I ran off the field so excited you told me I needed to learn how to catch with the opposite hand! Busted! You were such a great coach I knew I needed to marry you and have a team of our own as we did . No one can never take our memories away I know we will see each other again. Time is just an illusion. Until then I will always see your arm extended for a hug every time I passed you in the kitchen or in the family room. Thank you for a beautiful family 31 years of marriage and for being a real man, husband father papa, and best friend!
