“ Dad, I happened upon this tribute today, and was glad so that I could remind You and Mom that you are greatly missed and thought about.

You wouldn't recognize the world we're living in now, and I know you would have a few opinions about it.

Now that I am older I've come to realize you were right about things and hope things turn around and get better before they get worse and can't be changed. Love and Thank You, Debbie
