“ My husband and I met Joe at St. Louis Catholic Church. Every Saturday we would see him in his usual spot and we would spend a few minutes chatting before Mass. He was the sweetest man and we will surely miss him. Our prayers and condolences to his family.

“ Grandpa Joe,

It's so obvious by reading the sentiments of others how loved you are. Grant and I will cherish the time we spent with you over the years. You were our family and we will miss you dearly. No matter how old someone is it is still painful to say goodbye, but I know someday we will all be together again. Thank you so much for all your love and kindness.

Ed and Mom #2 you will be in my prayers to get through this difficult time. Anything, anywhere, anytime I am here for you!!

“ We will miss Grandpa Joe but we know how happy he is to be reunited his beloved wife and in God's hands. His brown recliner in the family room will hold his memories at our future family get-togethers as well as in our hearts.

Much love,

Sue, Mike, Lindsay and Garrett Trupiano

“ When I think of Uncle Joe, the expression “twinkle in your eye” is my first thought. At family holiday gatherings that twinkle was even brighter than the red bow tie below it. His love of family and his love of life was a gift he was eager to share. I know we are saddened that he is no longer with us here, but I also know there are some souls in heaven who are now delighting in his return to them.

Love,

Marie Therese

“ My Godfather. What a sweet, peaceful man. My first job was at Hudson's downtown and I used to go visit with Uncle Joe up on the 12th floor (if memory serves). He even took me to lunch a couple times. Two or three years ago, Dad, Aunt Emily and I went to visit him and he took us to lunch at a nearby restaurant. I will cherish my memories of Uncle Joe.

“ I smiled when I read my sister's memories, for they are my own-right down to the Hudson's card, of course. We also enjoyed watching for the sailboats during the Mackinac race and having parties at the lake under the big red parachute. I smiled at the wonderful picture you chose. It captures Uncle Joe just as I remember him.

He was a much loved uncle and will be missed. I'm sure he is happy to be reunited with Aunt Lillian.

*Love to you,
Susan*

“ We loved "Grandpa Joe" as a family member. He was the king of Lakeside Drive. He spent many summer weekends at our dinner table and was always at our door with homemade soup. He was a father figure to me and grandpa to Andrew and Michael. Port sanilac has never been the same without him! We will miss him dearly! God bless the Busher family.

Love,

Barry, Joanne, Andrew and Michael Schigelone.

“ HI Ed and Maggie,
So sorry to hear of our loss. I have many memories of your dad. Of course the bow ties, cutting my dad's hair (he was ahead of his time - no one would cut my dad's hair that short except your dad), them building the lake house and seeing all the new things they did and my parents playing cards with them at the cottage. He acutally helped me in getting my first credit card - the Hudson's card. He was a great uncle!

Love,

Emily

I'm sorry to hear of your loss, Ed. Though I never knew your father I do know that it can often be a devastating thing to lose someone who's been a central part of your life. Again, please accept my condolences.
