“ Joe and I met on our first Boy Scout campout in the summer of 1954. It was initiation night for all the new scouts and we both ended up hiding under the same picnic table at Algonac, MI county park. Little did we know what a strong friendship that would lead to. From making Eagle Scout together, to learning to drive, to changing an engine in his old Mercury, to chasing girls, to planning our careers and to finally being Best Man at each others weddings. Joe, we sure had a lot of fun, laughs, heartaches, and beers together.

Rest in peace my old friend,

My fondest memories of Joe were in Ludington. He was always extremely kind and showed interest in what I, just a teenager, had to say. My deepest condolences to Marilyn, Julie, Werner, Hannah, Joseph, Darren, Carol, Vivian, Vaughn and Gwyneth!

Your family will be in my thoughts and prayers for a long time.

“ Joe was a beautiful guy. He was an Eagle Scout that I was fortunate to share my scouting and explorer and high school days with. As an Eagle he is now soaring with the Eagles looking down on us.
