“ My last communication with Joe was a text he sent me and it ended with this.. "OK God Bless Wayne ! He Is Risen and dwells within us !!!"
I always knew He dwelt within Joe, he was my Christian buddy and I guess he always will be. See you soon Joe.

“ Joe used to joke about making a difference. Well he sure did at the garage with his work and humor. Now he gets to play with Ted, Red and the rest of those rookies up there. R.I.P Joe. Thoughts and prayers to his wife, sons, mom and the rest of his family.

“ It still doesn't seem real to me. He left this world way too soon. I guess God has plans for him. Joe was an Amazing guy, his love for God and his family were so apparent! Every time I saw him he had a smile on his face and was always so positive and warm. Of course a great sense of humor too! He will be deeply missed by so many as he has touched so many lives! He was truly a great example to all of Faith, fatherhood, being a great husband and friend. Until we see you again Joe! May God Bless the family with strength and comfort.

Had the pleasure of working with Joe at FCA Transport and was one of the nicest guys you could meet even though we worked in different departments every time we passed he would always stop and chat like we had been best friends 40 years Joe had very warm and kind spirit. One day after many years we officially introduced ourselves even though we had been talking everyday when he was going home and I was coming in and he would say "would love to chat longer but ain't no place like home", I know Joe will be missed by all who knew him.

My deepest sympathy to the Dusza family,

Chuck Harris

“My God, I don't know where to begin... Joe & I have been the greatest buddies since Kindergarten at Woodland Elementary school. The World lost a wonderful human being & Heaven has gained one of the VERY BEST! We on planet Earth will miss him tremendously in this realm but can take consolation in having forever super awesome memories from how his life has touched our lives to help make us a better person & soul in every which way possible! I'm sure he Joe is enjoying seeing his father & other great friends in Heaven that have already moved on, also. Even though we may not have had an opportunity to see each other that often over the last several years, it has ALWAYS been so wonderful to talk with him over the phone, email, and/or text message him. My wife Lisa & I will miss Joe & we pray for God's strength to help Lynn, his sons & all of his family thru this difficult time and may they find peace in knowing that Joe is truly in one of God's best places in Heaven. Joe walked the walk, talked the talk, & truly lived the life of a real Christian. May he RIP in God's loving & caring arms. ALWAYS FOREVER WONDERFUL MEMORIES of this awesome guy!!!

“ Joe's passing is so hard to understand. It seems to us like he had so much more to do, so many more people to touch. His expected grandchild will never know him, but he leaves a legacy of faith like few people I have known. Joe loved God's word and he loved to pray. On Sunday mornings before worship, it was always his desire to lift up praise to God - so much so that we would be late getting to the platform 🙏 No matter, we were all blessed and encouraged when Joe prayed. He will be forever missed.

“ Joe was a man of God. He wasn't a paid minister but he told many times of he shared Jesus with those around him. He had a fierce love for God and his word. He showed God's love and joy to anyone he talked to. I served with Joe on the worship team at Macomb Christian Church. He was always positive and a great guitarist. Heaven definitely has gained with Joe being there. I'm grateful for his example and the impression he has left on my and so many others lives. Praying for Lynne and the boys! Mary Christian
