“ I knew Joe from work. He was my boss for a long time. He had old school tendencies in the workplace. He expected a lot and didn't always pat you on the back. However, he was very loyal to people who worked for him. Looking back now, he saved me at least a few times when his superiors were not happy with me. I also realize he sheltered me from a lot of stuff coming from above. He left much too soon and he was one of the good guys. My prayers to Joe and his family.

“ I'm really going to miss my wonderful friend of over 55 years. Joe and I took turns standing up at each other's weddings. I have fond memories of going to Tiger and U of M football games with Joe. I recall one time when I flew in from California, Joe picked me up at Metro. He drove us to Ann Arbor. There was a very cold rain for most of the 4th quarter. But, we stuck it out all the way to the bitter end. Joe was the kind of guy who would do something like that for a friend. It is an honor for me to call Joe a friend. I will be praying for his family. May fond memories of Joe help you through this difficult time. Thanks Joe for always being there for me. Love, David VanKeersbilck
