“ My condolences to Joe's family. My parents were clients of Joe for many years until he retired from the mutual fund/insurance business. When my father passed my mother who was Asian continued to work with Joe though she barely understood a word he said concerning investments and strategies which meant I, her son, would have to be present to serve as "interpreter", With any news story that she thought would negatively impact her investment she would call Joe. And every time, Joe would come to her house to meet with her.

Joe treated her as though she had millions of dollars with him which could not have been further from the truth. He would be there for hours talking about his wife and family over coffee. Honest to God he was one of the most sincere, caring and patient men I have ever met. He never complained and never feared going to my moms house even though her neighborhood had began to deteriorate.

The funny thing was I never understood a thing Joe said either when it came to strategies but because Joe was Joe, my mom trusted him. Joe was one of a kind and I am glad to have had the opportunity to know him - Bob Williams
