“ Ken and I were saddened by the news that Uncle Joe had past away. Uncle Joe, was always fun to talk with, we loved our visits with him, and enjoyed phone calls from him or when we called him. He brought so much joy to my mom when he would come by for a visit, in fact I know that he was a treasured Uncle to each one of my sisters and brothers. He truly touched each one of the Krempa kids in such a special way. He has a place in each one of our hearts, he was loved much by all of us. I loved his smile and his laugh. I can picture him at my mom and dads kitchen table, enjoying moms food, good conversation and laughter. I am sorry that we lost touch through out the years. Life goes by to fast. We are blessed to have wonderful memories of Uncle Joe. We send our love and prays to the family. Pam and Ken Ratke
